Welcome

We are glad that you have chosen to worship with us today. Central is a family church, with generations of families making their home here. Central is also a mission-oriented church, sharing the love and good news of the gospel with one another, our neighborhood, our community, and the world, as you will see throughout our ministries, events, and announcements for this week. We would love to be your church home. If you are here just for the day, we pray God’s blessings on your journey!

Rev. Tammy Gieselman, chaplain at the University of Evansville, is our guest pastor today while Pastor Easley is on vacation. Pastor Easley will be back in the office on Tuesday.

THANK YOU VBS VOLUNTEERS!

Thank you to everyone who helped make our "Hero Headquarters" VBS a success! So many of you gave up your time and a lot of energy to help over 50 kids learn that God is our biggest super hero of all! During this past week we had many volunteers who helped with registration, taught, made crafts, led groups, helped kids learn new songs, transformed into superheroes for our nightly skits, cooked, cleaned, swept and mopped, put up and took down tables, provided childcare, and did anything that was asked! THANK YOU!

NEXT SUNDAY IS JULY 4

Rev. Easley's Independence Day sermon title is "One Nation, Under God." The scripture is Proverbs 14:26-34. Communion will be celebrated.

Use the prayer card in the pew rack for any celebrations, concerns or thanksgivings. During the prayer hymn, those to be shared may be brought forward or given to an usher. Requests you do not want shared may be put it to the Prayer Request Box or given to the pastor after worship.

Jerry is a University of Evansville graduate and native of Nashville, TN. We will simply be taking a love offering for Jerry during the concert, so please tell you friends and invite your neighbors. It will just be Jerry and his acoustic guitar, and you will be blessed by his lyrics and his heart. Let's make this an incredible event together and fill our sanctuary with worship, fellowship and song.
