TODAY'S CELEBRATION AND PICNIC
WELCOME TO SINGER RYAN SEATON

Today we have come together in one service to celebrate the halfway point of Vision 2012, completion of the Family Life Center, dedication of the Nolte Room and the unveiling of plaques to honor both. Everyone is invited to stay for an indoor picnic immediately after worship in the Family Life Center. This morning we also want to welcome Christian artist, Ryan Seaton, back to Central to sing this morning. In high school Ryan sang here a few times each year with his mom, Debbie, mostly at the 8:30 service. After school he began singing Christian music professionally, several years recently with the well-known Signature Sound quartet, until he decided to go solo last year. His first solo recording, "The Stage is Bare" was just released. He begins his first solo tour at the end of the month.
